

PATENT EVADES ANTI-TRUST LAW

Judge Sanborn Makes A Decision In A Question Of National Importance.

HAS THE RIGHT TO RESTRAIN TRADE

Owners May Discriminate In Prices Between Different Buyers And Different Localities At Their Will.

[SPECIAL BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Madison, Wis., Jan. 26.—A far-reaching decision has been handed down by United States District Judge A. L. Sanborn of this district in the case of Rubber Tire Wheel company of Ohio against the Milwaukee Rubber Works company. The court holds in effect that while the owner of a patent may deal fairly or unfairly, may refuse to sell his product in one place in discrimination in favor of another and may discriminate in prices between different sections or different buyers and still be within his rights, yet the patent can not be used as a blind for evading the Sherman anti-trust law by maintaining excessive prices and restricting trade and interstate commerce in states where the patent monopoly has no practical existence and that the owners of the patent or licenses have no right to create a fund for crushing competition in interstate commerce.

Defines Monopoly.

As a basis for his decision, Judge Sanborn defines monopoly as a restraint of trade or commerce in articles which before the monopoly was created were subjects of trade or commerce.

"Patented articles were not so, for they did not exist before," says the judge. "Hence they cannot be of prohibited monopoly unless the restrictions be extended beyond what the patent secures."

The court holds that the suit must fail because while there was no evil intent shown, the contracts allowing the Milwaukee company to use certain patents not only sought to fix prices and restrict trade, but attempted to crush competition in articles not within the domain of the patent.

The Milwaukee company charged that the contracts were illegal under the Sherman anti-trust act and amounted to conspiracy in restraint of interstate commerce. The company charged that the Ohio company had resorted to the patent as a pretext merely to evade the trust laws, that prices were raised above the legitimate market prices and that the amount of manufacturing was restricted. Much the same principle was involved in the celebrated Northern Securities case and is now an issue in the rebate suit against the Milwaukee Refrigerator company.

Combination Is Clear.

"These contracts most clearly make a combination within the Sherman act if the subject matter be within that act," said the court. "That is the only question at issue."

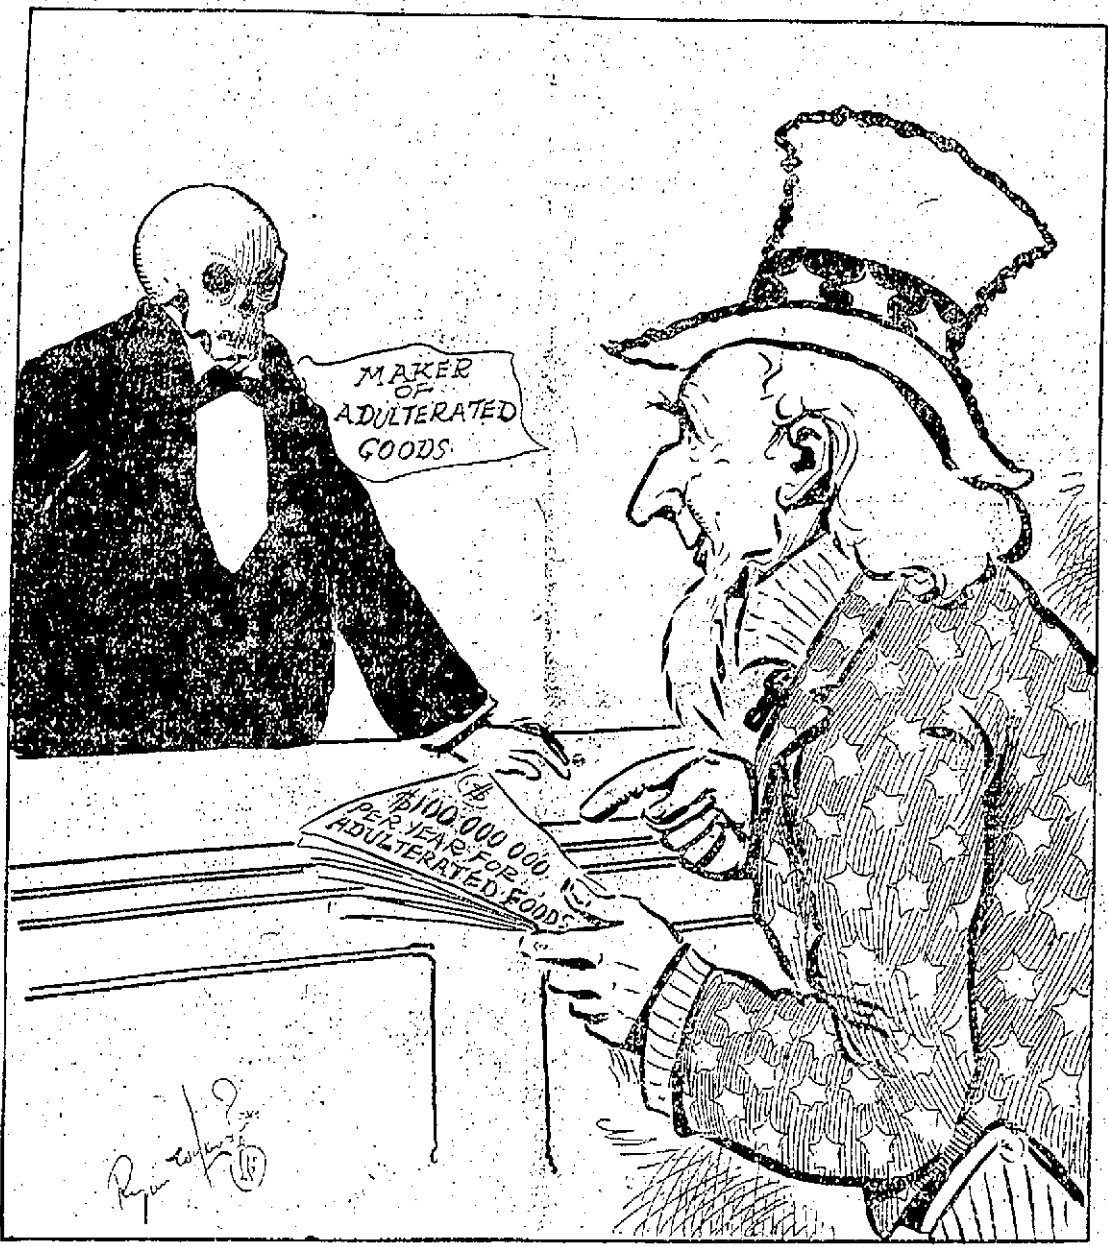

"The constitution in the interests of inventors grants to the patentee the absolute right to exclude or debar the world from making, using and selling his device, and congress by passing acts in aid of powers already given it, like the power to regulate commerce, cannot interfere with this constitutional right of exclusion, embargo or inhibition."

"Like every kind of arbitrary power, it is liable to abuse, but the power to abuse it resides in its very nature. In two important ways the provisions of these contracts attempt to secure results not contained within or flowing from the lawful monopoly of the patent. First they raise and maintain prices and restrict trade and interstate commerce in states where the patent monopoly has no practical existence; secondly, they create a fund for crushing competition in interstate commerce throughout the whole country."

Trade Must Be Protected.

"Within the proper domain of his monopoly the patentee may combine and conspire and restrict as much as he pleases. But I cannot conceive that enlightened courts under a government of law will find it consonant with just notions of duty to permit a patentee, however worthy his invention or large and extensive his rights, by means of his royalties to create a fund for crushing lawful opposition, destroying legitimate and proper competition and restraining trade and commerce not only in patented articles themselves but all others competing with them."

"Even in territory lawfully subject to his monopoly I cannot believe this possible, still less in a broad domain covering four populous states in which the patent has become practically worthless—a territory greater in extent than that of the British isles."

AID IS SOUGHT FOR STARVING JAPANESE

Government Will Establish Works and Employ Famine Sufferers—Not to Distribute Money.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—A movement has been started to appeal to the American public for contributions of foodstuffs and money to relieve the distress in the famine-stricken northern provinces of Japan. According to information received at the Japanese embassy here the northern provinces of Japan are suffering from a severe famine which only the quickest relief will be able to check. According to the information obtained the rice crop this year has been only about fifteen per cent of the average crop and that the famine is causing particular suffering in the three northern provinces of Fukushima, Miyagi and Iwate, which have altogether a population of about two million seven hundred thousand. Many of the people are engaged in the silk trade and the failure of the silk output has aggravated the general suffering.

In answer to an inquiry made by persons in this country whether any help from a foreign country would be accepted, the Japanese government has sent a cable message to the charge d'affaires in this city, saying that such help would be very welcome at this moment. The dispatch adds that the government investigation into the conditions in the above-named provinces has confirmed the extreme seriousness of the situation. The plan of the government is to establish works and give employment to the distressed population instead of distributing money promiscuously.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY RELIGIOUS HOLIDAY

American Missionary Association Urges Memorial Services in Sabbath Schools.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, Jan. 26.—The American Missionary association has issued an appeal to congregational churches, especially to their Sabbath schools and Young People's societies, to observe Sunday, February 11, in recognition of the ninety-seventh birthday of Abraham Lincoln. The association expects that at least thirty thousand young people will respond to this appeal this year, and that the Methodist denomination will unite in the observance of the day. It appeals to other denominations to do likewise, so that Lincoln memorial Sunday may become an interdenominational observance, inclusive, at least, of the leading Protestant denominations in the country. The Rev. Dr. C. J. Ryder, corresponding secretary of the association, is in communication with Grand Army posts, literary societies and many patriotic organizations to join in the celebration. He expects generally favorable responses.

BUILD LIBRARY AS A HARPER MEMORIAL

Professors, Students, Alumni and Trustees Favor Such Institution.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Chicago, Ill., Jan. 26.—The sentiment among the professors, students and alumni of the University of Chicago, to honor the memory of President Harper not by the erection of a chapel, but by the erection of an enormous library, is constantly gaining ground and the board of trustees has decided to hold a conference for the purpose of considering the proposition. Many prominent alumni of the university have expressed themselves in favor of the plan and it is believed that a large amount of money could be collected without difficulty to carry out the plan on the most generous scale. The plan will be submitted to erect a large library building in memory of the late President Harper at an expense of $1,500,000.

TWO KILLED IN BAD WRECK AT FOREMAN

East Bound Flyer Smashes Into a Freight Through an Open Switch.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Foreman, Wis., Jan. 26.—A disastrous wreck occurred here today when eastbound flyer No. 12 crashed through an open switch into a freight train. Engineer Webster was instantly killed and his fireman was severely injured that he died before reaching the hospital. Five others were injured—Mrs. Edward Van Patten of Davenport, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Leo R. Courtwright of El Paso, Texas; and two unknown laborers. The baggage-car was overturned on top of the engine, which completely telescoped the caboose of the freight train. The accident was due to the carelessness of the crew of the freight in not closing the switch.

ASKS INJUNCTION FROM THE COURTS

Would Restrain Public Printer from Disposing of Copies of the Insurance Investigation.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York City, Jan. 26.—The supreme court will be asked to give an injunction restraining the public printer from disposing of the reports of the recent investigation of the insurance commissioner, who yesterday stated that unless the sum of $100,000 was paid the same would not be forthcoming. In case this injunction is granted it will be necessary to secure a writ of replevin to obtain the papers from him, which will take a month or more, as court cannot convene, according to the New York state laws, on an independent session without an order from the general assembly.

CONDITIONS IN STANDARD OIL

False Signature To Incorporation Papers Of The Republic Oil Company.

FORMER EMPLOYE ON THE STAND

Attorney General Hadley Of Missouri. Brings Out The Secrets Of The Big Monopoly Through Evidence.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 26.—Forgery and fraud in the inception of the Republic Oil company is charged against the Standard Oil company by Attorney General Hadley of Missouri.

Testimony to support these charges was given by Louis H. Turrell, a former secretary and treasurer of the Republic Oil company. He was the only witness examined on the first day of the Cleveland investigation of the oil trust's affairs, but he ripped wide open the secrets of John D. Rockefeller and some of his associates.

Further, Turrell supplied the evidence for which Attorney General Hadley worked in vain to extract from Henry H. Rogers and others in New York. Turrell swore that the Republic Oil company was organized by the Standard Oil company; that all its stock was owned by the Standard Oil; that the officers and directors were Standard Oil employees; and that they were instructed to pose as officers of an independent company engaged in fighting Standard Oil.

Attorney General Hadley said that Turrell's evidence warrants criminal proceedings under the laws of New York. He continued:

Signs Wrong Initials.
"Louis H. Turrell, the accountant, of Detroit, and for fourteen years an employee of the Standard Oil company, has given us the best exposure of Standard Oil methods of anything which we have yet obtained. I shall send a copy of his testimony to District Attorney Jerome of New York, with the request that it be thoroughly examined, and that criminal proceedings be brought against the parties guilty of causing a false signature to be attached to articles of incorporation."

"Mr. Turrell has sworn here that he was induced by Standard Oil officials to sign the name of F. A. Turrell to the documents, when in reality his name is Louis H. Turrell. His testimony further shows that his signature was never sworn to, and the notary who took his affidavit can, under the laws of New York, be prosecuted for forgery in the first degree. It will be up to Mr. Jerome to say whether the persons who induced Turrell to sign his name falsely can be included in the prosecution."

Original Incorporator.

Turrell's evidence came as a surprise to the Standard Oil attorneys. He was discharged from the Standard Oil company's employ two years ago. For more than a year Attorney General Hadley has been searching for him, for Turrell was one of the three original incorporators of the Republic Oil company. But Mr. Hadley was looking for him under the name of "F. A. Turrell," which appeared in and was signed to the articles of incorporation of the Republic Oil company. As Mr. Hadley was leaving New York at the conclusion of his investigation there he received a letter from Mr. Turrell, who offered to reveal all the knowledge and information on the ownership of the Republic Oil company by the Standard that he had. On Attorney General Hadley's solicitation Mr. Turrell came to Cleveland, met the Missouri attorney general and told the story of the secret workings of the oil trust as regards the Republic Oil company.

A. T. Doremus, notary public and statistician in the Standard Oil company's New York office, is named by Attorney General Hadley as the perpetrator of the alleged forgery.

"FIGHTING JOE" WHEELER HAS GONE TO THE BEYOND

Confederate Cavalry Leader Passes To The World Above—A Notable Career.

New York, Jan. 26.—Gen. Joseph Wheeler, who won the sobriquet "Fighting Joe" when he led the cavalry of the confederacy against the forces of the Union during the war of the rebellion, and lived up to it thirty-five years later, when, enlisted under the banner he once opposed, he commanded the cavalry division at the siege of Santiago, died of pneumonia at 6:25 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the home of his sister, Mrs. Sterling Smith, in Brooklyn.

Gen. Wheeler, who, after the close of the Spanish-American war held the rank of brigadier general in the United States army, was 69 years of age. He was taken ill six days before a severe cold developing first into pleurisy and then into pneumonia. Last night the disease was found to have affected both lungs and the physicians gave up hope.

Joseph Wheeler was born in Augusta, Ga., Sept. 10, 1836. He graduated from the military academy at West Point in 1859 and served as lieutenant of cavalry in New Mexico until the outbreak of the civil war, when he resigned his commission and offered his services to the confederacy. He had just passed his twenty-eighth birthday when he received his commission and was thanked by the confederate congress for his efficient service. "Joe" Wheeler and his cavalry command were the inspiration of the southern armies. No task was too difficult for him to undertake, no danger too great to incur. In four years he was thrice wounded and had sixteen horses shot under him, while staff officers innumerable fell at his side. His stroke against the enemy's flank or rear was like lightning, and like it he had disappeared before the enemy could retaliate.

He was successfully promoted to the command of a regiment, brigade, division, and army corps; and in 1862 was assigned to the command of the army corps of cavalry of the western army, continuing in that position until the war closed. By joint resolution of the confederate congress he received the thanks of that body for successful military operations, and for the defense of the city of Allen received the thanks of the state of South Carolina. At the close of the war he held the rank of senior cavalry general of the confederate army.

WONDERFUL TALES OF TEXAS LANDS

ALICE IS A MODEL LITTLE CITY
IN A RICH DISTRICT.

AN EXCURSION NEXT MONTH

Mr. Lee Will Show the Wonders of
This Locality to Those Who Wish To Go.

If any one has any doubts about the future of Texas they should talk to Mr. Lee of Evansville. He is the most enthusiastic Texas enthusiast not at present living within the confines of the Lone Star state. He simply bubbles over with enthusiasm and still is conservative in all his statements. He is anxious to show the wonderful sights he recounts to Rock county residents and proposes to conduct an excursion to the land of promise so that they may judge for themselves. The date of this excursion has been changed from the 16th of February to the 20th, owing to the fact several who expect to go desire the latter date. Mr. Lee is ready to answer all questions regarding this trip and hopes to be able to secure eighteen people—if he does this he will have a private car in which the party can live. The fare is $30.15 for the round trip, which is exceptionally cheap. Mr. Lee was in Janesville yesterday and talked with many interested in southwestern Texas. In speaking of the hunting and fishing in the adjacent country Mr. Lee says it is wonderful and points with pride to the picture published in this article to show what can be done in this line. In speaking of Alice, near which city the land he is interested in is located, he says:

"Alice is situated at the junction of the San Antonio & Aransas Pass Railway with the Texas-Mexican or Nacional de Mexico system. The population of the town at present is about 2,500, and is constantly increasing, scarcely a week passing without the advent of one or more new families. The citizenship of the town is peaceable and law-abiding. Only one homicide has occurred in the history of the town, and the perpetrator of that was promptly arrested and punished by due process of law.

"The railroads running out to the four cardinal points of the compass make the town easy to get into or out of, and make it a very desirable point for the truck gardener or small farmer, and for the establishment of manufacturing enterprises, because of the ease with which products of all kinds can be shipped to market. Business in all lines is well represented there, and some of the strongest firms with some of the largest stocks of goods in southwest Texas are located here.

"Alice was incorporated as a city about one year ago, and has a progressive and enterprising mayor and board of aldermen. The Methodist Episcopal and Catholic denominations have church edifices here, and the Baptist have a church building, in course of erection. The Presbyterians are preparing to build. All the

WHAT IT MEANS TO YOU.

Few People Realize the Importance of Good Digestion Until It Is Lost.

Many people suffer from dyspepsia and do not know it. They feel mean, out of sorts, peevish, do not sleep well, do not have a good keen appetite, do not have the inclination and energy for physical or mental work they once had, but at the same time do not feel any particular pain or distress in the stomach. Yet all this is the result of poor digestion, an insidious form of dyspepsia which can only be cured by a remedy specially intended to cure it and make the digestive organs act naturally, and properly digest the food eaten. Bitters, after dinner pills and nerve tonics will never help the trouble; they don't reach it. The new medical discovery does. It is called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and is a specific for dyspepsia and indigestion. It cures because it thoroughly digests all wholesome food taken into the stomach, whether the stomach is in good working order or not.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, by digesting the food, instead of making the worn-out stomach do all the work, gives it a much needed rest and a cure of dyspepsia is the natural result.

When you are nervous, run down and sleepless, don't make the common mistake of supposing your nervous system needs treatment and fill your stomach with powerful nerve tonics which make you feel good for a little while only to fall back farther than ever.

Your nerves are all right but they are starved, they want food. Nourish them with wholesome every day food and plenty of it, well digested, and you can laugh at nerve tonics and medicine.

But the nerves will not be nourished from a weak, abused stomach, but when the digestion has been made perfect by the use of this remedy all nervous symptoms disappear.

Who ever heard of a man or woman blessed with a vigorous digestion and good appetite being troubled with their nerves?

Good digestion means a strong nervous system, abundance of energy and capacity to enjoy the good things of life.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will certainly set your stomach and digestive organs right; they can't help but do it because they nourish the body by digesting the food eaten, and rest the stomach.

You get nourishment and rest at one and the same time, and that is all the worn-out dyspeptic needs to build him up and give new life to every organ and an added zest to every pleasure.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a god-send to the army of men and women with weak stomachs and nerves and justify the claim of being one of the most worthy medical discoveries of the time.

denominations mentioned have large memberships and the churches are well attended.

"Business houses are closed on Sunday, in accordance with the state law and the Sabbath is observed in a manner characteristic of a Christian people. The public school of Alice is the pride of the people. Prof. Nat Benton, the principal, is the peer of any educator in Texas or elsewhere, and he is assisted by a competent corps of teachers. It would be hard to find anywhere a public school giving more universal satisfaction to its patrons.

"Alice and adjacent territory has been incorporated as a school district and recently an election was held, and carried practically without opposition to issue bonds to the amount of $15,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary to run thirty years, for the erection of a substantial brick school-house, which will be begun in the near future, and which when completed will be the finest in the section.

"A good portion of the population of Alice are Mexicans—that is to say, they can be grown with ease and profit in this section.

"Various fruits have been successfully grown here for years, but it is only recently that a few people have begun to experiment with oranges, lemons and other citrus fruits, and both the soil and climate have been found admirably suited to their production. Nuts of nearly every variety can also be grown here with proper effort.

"The truth is that hitherto this has been regarded as only a stock-raising country. The Mexicans who first dwelt here grew rich from their flocks and herds, almost without any effort, and the first American settlers followed their example and generation after generation has continued to follow it. The advent of railroads brought in new people and the productivity of the land began to attract attention. Some years, however, the rain fall has not been sufficient to insure full crops, and then some people began to think of irrigation. Of course the first thing to be thought of was water. There is an abundant supply of water beneath the American citizens of Mexican descent, for nearly all of them are natives of Texas, to the manner born. Some of the leading business men are of this class, and young men of Mexican descent are found clerking in all the stores and occupying positions of trust everywhere, and it is a peculiar feature of this race that one of them rarely abuses a trust. There are no negroes in Alice, and nearly all manual labor, both household and outdoor, is performed by Mexicans who have always been found equal to the occasion wherever tried and who, as a rule, are reliable and trustworthy.

"All classes of business are represented in Alice and some of the merchants carry enormous stocks of goods. There are three general merchandise stores, wholesale and retail, one exclusively wholesale and retail grocery house, and several other retail grocery and provision houses; one hardware and implement house, two drug stores, two lumber yards, three saloons, two cotton gins, telephone shop, several restaurants and four hotels. There is one lawyer, two doctors, one dentist, one American citizen's surface for all irrigation and other purposes, all that is necessary being to get it to the surface and utilize it. Artesian water has been found in abundance to the north, south and east of Alice, but until now no proper effort has been made to get it in this immediate locality. Numerous pumping wells are now being used for irrigation purposes, and the supply of water appears to be inexhaustible.

"I heard a gentleman talking of the possibilities of the Alice country recently and he said to a group of gentlemen he was addressing: 'I was raised in the state of New York, and my father made his money raising Irish potatoes. He was content if he could sell his potatoes for sixteen or eighteen cents per bushel. The land he cultivated was very similar to the land here, only it was not half so rich. Here you can grow two hundred bushels of potatoes per acre and can sell them at from fifty cents to one dollar per bushel. What more could you ask? Do you want the earth with a fence around it?'

"But no one need confine himself to potatoes there, or to one crop of potatoes a year. He can grow two crops of potatoes, or a crop of onions, one of potatoes and one of melons on the same land.

"The time is coming and it is not newspaper and job printing establishment, two Mexican newspapers, and one bank. There are also carpenters, painters and other artisans.

"Soil and Climate. 'The sun does not shine on any other soil than that surrounding and adjacent to Alice. Everything that will grow anywhere, almost, can be grown here, and of various products, two to three crops can be grown each year. There were several instances last year where planters raised more than a bale of cotton to the acre. It is nothing unusual for the cotton stalks to live through the winter and produce a second crop the following season. Two crops of corn can be grown each year, with the proper effort, while three and four crops of sorghum are often raised in one year and from one planting.

"All manner of vegetables and garden truck thrive and attain perfection and finer cabbage, Irish and sweet potatoes, onions, radishes, beets, turnips, etc., never were seen anywhere than are produced here. Oats, millet and Milo maize grow to perfection in this region, though little attention has been given these crops in the past. Cotton has hitherto been the staple crop of this section, and it is only since the boll weevil made its appearance that Texas people have begun to realize the necessity for a diversity of crops. Peanuts is another crop which has recently begun to attract attention, and far distant, when the man who owns fifty or a hundred acres of land there and has so fixed so that he can irrigate it, will be perfectly independent and can snap his fingers at the world, if he wants to. But perhaps the most promising outlook for the future of this section, lies in the growth of oranges, lemons, bananas and similar fruits. Both soil and climate are admirably adapted to the production of these and other tropical and semi-tropical fruits—all that is needed is to go about it intelligently. In fact a second California lies here, waiting, awaiting development, only this one has many advantages over the first California, among them being the fact that the seasons are from six weeks to two months earlier than those of California, and Alice is about two thousand miles nearer to market. These two advantages alone are worth millions.

"The climate of this section of Texas is almost incomparable. The winters are very mild and it is no uncommon thing for winter to pass without ice forming, even in exposed places, and it even happens sometimes that there is no frost. The past winter was one of the most severe experienced here in many years, and yet sixteen was the lowest temperature marked by the thermometer. In summer the mercury rarely rises higher than ninety-eight to one hundred and there is always a good breeze from the gulf, hence the temperature rarely becomes oppressive in the day time and the nights are always delightfully cool and pleasant. People do not suffer with heat here in summer as they do in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and other western states, and such a thing as sunstroke is comparatively unknown. The average rain fall is twenty-seven inches.

HORSE BREEDERS TO GATHER AT MADISON

Last Two Days of Farmers' Short Course Devoted to Study and Discussion of Horse

The horse will be the special subject of study and discussion during the last two days of the farmers' short course in agriculture, to be held at the College of Agriculture, Feb. 23-24, at Madison, and at 1:30 p. m. Thursday, February 15, horse breeders will assemble in the auditorium of the agricultural hall to consider matters relating to the new stallion law, the advisability of organizing a state draft horse breeders' association, the breeding, feeding, rearing, management and selling of horses and other topics vital to the welfare of the horse raising industry of the state. The sessions, apart from the breeders' conference, will comprise lectures and demonstrations upon points of the draft horse, "examination" of horses for soundness, "post-mortem examination," "digestive and respiratory organs," and a stereopticon illustrated evening lecture on the breeds of draft horses. Fine horses will be exhibited and judged. Leading breeders have promised to be present. The meetings will prove helpful to all and it is hoped that the attendance of farmers will be large. For further information write to Dr. A. S. Alexander, in charge of department of horse breedings, Madison, Wis.

Soundness of Stallions
It should clearly be understood by owners of stallions, and all concerned, that neither the state nor the College of Agriculture, employs anyone to examine stallions as to soundness; that any graduate veterinarian is qualified to do such work under the law and that, as stated in the printed matter of the department of horse breeding relating to this subject, the law allows the owner the option of making his personal affidavit to the soundness of his horse, in place of a veterinarian's examination. The full text of the law will be found in bulletin 127 of the College of Agriculture, Madison, Wis., which also gives much useful information on the principles and practice of horse breeding, and will be sent free to all Wisconsin applicants.

Within the next few weeks work will be commenced at the Cullen Brothers' planing mill, in the old Eagle Cigar Box factory building on North Main street. The interior of the structure has been remodeled and a full equipment has been installed. A dry kiln has been constructed and all the machines necessary to the manufacture of interior finishings have been placed. A twenty-horsepower electric motor will furnish the power and as soon as this has been connected with the machinery will be started. All the equipment is new and speaking in round numbers the investment represents ten thousand dollars. Ten workmen will compose the force of men for the time being, but as work increases this number will be enlarged. Cullen brothers will make all the interior finishings that they use in their contracting work and do job work. They have several large contracts on hand at present and just completed a $40,000 church building for the Presbyterian society in Rockford. They have underway a $225,000 postoffice structure at Hammond, Ind., and a $100,000 city hall at Rockford. A large amount of planing work will be necessary for both and it will continue into the next winter on them as it did this year at the church at Rockford. Cullen brothers intend to run their factory the year around.

FIFTH ANNUAL K. OF C. BANQUET

ASSEMBLY HALL WAS SCENE OF NOTABLE GATHERING.

OVER 350 GUESTS PRESENT

Visitors From Several Neighboring Cities Took Part in the Program—
Festivities Ended in Dance.

Garlands of evergreen and holly formed a canopy over long, snow-white tables glittering with silver and glass and many lights at Assembly hall last evening. Three hundred and fifty guests, including visitors from many neighboring cities, were gathered there to participate in the fifth annual banquet of Carroll Council No. 536 of the Knights of Columbus. There were cut-flowers in profusion—a red carnation at every place and the orchestra stand on one side of the hall was banked high with potted plants and ferns. Elsewhere there were cozy corners where tall banquet lamps burned brightly and rugs, divans, and easy chairs invited the stroller to linger. About half-past seven o'clock Caterer George Shurtleff had everything in readiness and caused the signal "seats all" to be given. Then the serving of the tempting repast began and while it was in progress Knell & Hatch's musicians rendered a series of selections well adapted to the spirit of the hour.

Greeting from Archbishop
D. W. Hayes was master of ceremonies and Dean E. M. McGinley offered the opening prayer. When the nuts and fruit had been disposed of, he arose and announced the opening number of the evening's program—a solo by George Hatch. The latter played his own accompaniment on the harp and his rendition was greeted with a storm of applause. Rev. Fr. W. J. Goebel was then called upon to deliver the address of welcome and spoke in his usual happy vein, lauding the local Council and its members and extending in its behalf the heartiest salutations. He gave extracts from two letters from Archbishop Messmer of Milwaukee in which the latter sent his greetings and sincerely regretted that a call to St. Paul made it impossible for him to be present.

One Flag for All
J. L. O'Connor of Milwaukee apologized for his failure to prepare and then proceeded to give one of the most witty and eloquent addresses of the evening. After alluding to the fact that Carroll Council had conferred the third degree on him, he spoke of the progress of the order in the west—the march to Denver and Salt Lake City and finally to the Pacific coast. This order proclaimed to the world that it was founded on the broad principles of charity and love and patriotism. Catholic and Protestants in this country loved and had fought for a common flag. The Sisters of Charity for their heroic work during the Civil War, deserved to state in the glory of War, Sheridan, Sherman, and McClellan. The Knights of Columbus order with 160,000 men on its roster was daily doing much for charity and brotherhood and was the pride of the Catholics of America.

True Charity Advocated
Following a violin, mandolin, and piano selection by the Crowley sisters, which was very well received, John F. Donovan of Milwaukee spoke on the true principle of "Charity." It was the speaker's conviction that a man could not draw on his bank account for a lot in Jerusalem. Signal acts of charity by loyal Catholics in all sections of the world were described. Rev. Fr. M. J. Ward of Beloit prefaced his remarks on "Civilization" with the statement that he had yet to find a man who could fully and satisfactorily explain the meaning of the word. He hardly thought that the modern idea of "Get the money" was adequate as a definition. Indeed, this spirit, made so conspicuous by the recent life insurance exposures in New York, seemed to demonstrate not only the fact that no civilization was needed, but also that all human society must be regulated by God.

Politics to Be Eschewed
No other society ever had the opportunities for accomplishing good that are presented by the K. of C. order today. The church must sow the seed of salvation and the man who can further and advance this work are on the rolls of the order in all sections of this country. In some cities they had already succeeded in having thrown out of the public libraries and schools certain books which censured the Catholic church. The principle of honesty should prevail and politics should be avoided by the order. At the ballot box its members should stand as one man for the highest welfare of this great country over which floats the stars and stripes of which all Catholics are proud.

Toast to the Ladies
P. L. McArdle of Chicago, national advocate of the K. of C. paid tribute to J. L. O'Connor's impromptu speech and then spoke of the money mania and made comparisons of Marshall Field and his millions of dollars and Judge Taft who left millions of friends. He offered a toast to "The Ladies" which was received with great demonstrations of approval and in conclusion spoke of the Knights of Columbus as an order which had brought the Catholic people of this country together so that they knew one another better than ever before.

Among Those Present
Other speakers were: Rev. Fr. J. Carroll of Watertown, Rev. Fr. J. J. Collins of Fond du Lac, Rev. Fr. Hans of Beloit, Rev. Fr. M. A. Condon of Oregon, Rev. Fr. J. E. Harlan of Edgerton, Rev. Fr. M. E. Downs of Whitefish, Rev. Charles O'Brien of Milwaukee, John Donnelly of Woodstock, Rev. Fr. J. McGinley of St. Mary, Rev. Fr. J. Cunningham, and E. H. Ryan of Janesville. Some of the other visitors present were: J. Sullivan of Chicago, Miss Martha Olin and Lawrence Luby of Rockford, A. Helms of Ladd, Ill., and the following from Beloit—Mr. and Mrs. P. McElhan, John Hauser, M. J. Barry, Roger Goodwin, Edward Burns, John Peck, Jos.

ELECTED DIRECTORS FOR COMING YEAR

Janesville Advancement Association
Held Its Annual Meeting
Last Evening.

The first annual election of directors of the Janesville Advancement Association was held last evening at the offices of the New Gas Light company. Since its organization last July this association has done much to bring Janesville into prominence in the industrial world. An advertisement in Chicago papers, personal letters and organized efforts of the board of directors have had their results and several large concerns are now negotiating with the directors as prospective Janesville manufacturers. Weekly meetings of the board of directors have kept this body in close touch with the manufacturing world and it is probable that within a short time several large industries will be permanently located in Janesville. These negotiations have not been made public owing to the fact that other cities are also seeking the same concerns. The officers elected last evening are as follows:

Directors—George S. Parker, T. S. Nolan, F. L. Clemons, P. J. Mouat, H. P. Bliss, A. N. Fisher, L. E. Worendyke and W. H. Greenman. Advisory board—M. G. Jeffris, A. E. Bingham, C. S. Jackson, Michael Hayes, T. O. Howe, L. B. Carle, Geo. G. Sutherland, S. M. Smith, W. G. Wheeler and J. M. Bostwick.

Another Mining Company. Articles of incorporation have been filed at Madison by the Bailey Mining company of Janesville. The capital stock is $15,000 and the incorporators are George D. Simpson, Charles S. Putnam and William G. Wheeler.

DR. M. P. CUNNINGHAM TO LEAVE JANESVILLE

Dr. M. P. Cunningham has decided to leave Janesville and take up his residence in Mineral Point. Though he enjoys a good practice here and in the surrounding country, he believes that the opening in the latter city is a great opportunity, and has rented the offices occupied by the late Dr. Williams. Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham are now packing their household goods and expect to remove by the first of February.

THINK THIS OVER.

The people in a Nebraska town, a few months ago, commenced the building of a new church for the Methodist denomination. A member of the soliciting committee, who happened to be a patron of a Chicago mail-order house, called upon one of the leading merchants for a subscription. The merchant without hesitation placed his name on the list for $5.00 and then unhesitatingly informed the committee that to the extent of his fortune he would pay dollar for dollar with the large Chicago catalogue house for the proposed building. As the committee had paid several hundred dollars to the Chicago concern he decided that he would write to the manager for a donation. In a letter he explained that the concern had numerous customers who were members of the church, and that it would materially benefit the house if a liberal donation was made. Within a week a reply was received in the form of a polite letter, but one which absolutely refused to subscribe a cent for the cause in question, saying that it was entirely against the rules of the concern to so donate funds. As soon as the people in general discovered that there is nothing like philanthropists about the mail order business, that the managers of the concerns are not "Johnnies on the spot" when it comes down to charitable work, the better it will be.

QUAIL AND PHEASANTS.
The state game warden of Illinois has purchased thousands of Alabama quail and Virginia pheasants, which he is distributing in pairs to farmers who will agree to feed them during the cold season and to protect them as far as possible from lawless hunters. It is hoped by this means to restock Illinois with game birds, which will not only improve the sport of hunting at some time in the future, but will aid the farmers in their business, by keeping in check the increase of insects which prey upon crops. The money used in this undertaking comes out of the fund derived from the issue of hunting licenses, upward of 100,000 of which are now given out in a single season in Illinois.

If the plan of restocking with quail and pheasants works well in Illinois, it may be adopted by other states. Wisconsin is likely to gain a certain amount of benefit from it, for there is nothing to prevent a good many of the Illinois birds from coming over the border.

It seems a more appropriate employment of the license money to use it for the promotion of conditions favorable to hunters, than to lavish it upon the promotion of politics.

WILDER FOR HONGKONG.

The prospective appointment as consul general at Hongkong of Amos P. Wilder, editor of the Madison State Journal, is a handsome recognition of the worth and claims of a widely known and public spirited Wisconsin man that will be appreciated by the people of the state, says The Milwaukee Sentinel. The fact that Dr. Wilder's appointment is personally and actively favored by Secretary Root, whose official hobby is reform and strengthening the consular service, forms a guaranty to the people of the country at large of the nominee's special fitness in character and attainments for the post.

Such guaranty is hardly needed by Dr. Wilder's fellow citizens of the Badger state. The Madison editor is well known throughout his home state as a gentleman of high character, scholarly attainments, genial personality, and honest zeal for the public service. Through the resignation of General Briggs, Wisconsin's grand old man and premier civil war veteran, the Hongkong consulate will lose a distinguished American and a capable official. It is gratifying to know that his place will be filled by an able and zealous successor, who will not fail to make himself persona grata at his new post. The Sentinel congratulates the department on a happy selection, and Dr. Wilder on his important appointment.

Evening Wisconsin. One of the first bills to be introduced at the next session of the legislature will be to repeal the primary election law. Whether the members will be in a frame of mind at that time to sweep the law entirely off the statute books remains to be seen, but it begins to look as if there would be several radical changes in it anyway, perhaps to limit its operation to counties or congressional districts. The fact that it is the widespread belief that the spirit of the law has been violated already by its most prominent advocates has disgusted a lot of the politicians and perhaps through them a lot of the voters.Origin Of "Beverage".

says that he made a call upon the dentist yesterday in a skeptical frame of mind, as he didn't really believe that teeth could be drawn painless-ly.

But, that for once he was pleasantly disappointed, for Dr. Richards took out two big wisdom molar teeth from his mouth ACTUALLY without ONE PARTICLE OF PAIN.

He said he knew people found it hard to believe it, but it was TRUE just the same, and he should tell people as he met them, how Dr. Richards actually was doing painless dentistry.

Rev. A. M. Ayers of Oshkosh, Speaks
Daily in the Central Methodist Church.

The largest attendance at any afternoon service heard Rev. A. M. Ayers of Oshkosh at the Central Methodist church yesterday. He urged his hearers to be deep-sea fishermen, to leave the shallows and get out where the schools of fish are found. His remarks were based on the incident in the gospels concerning the wonderful drought of fish on the Galilee. Last evening an audience that filled the church to the doors listened to an eloquent sermon. The preacher traced the parallel between the descent of the dew upon the earth and the coming of the grace of God to men. Not by convulsion and cataclysm is religion attained, but by the silent and gentle daily influences of the spirit of God. The male quartette sang two selections with strong effect. This morning there was a business men's prayer meeting. This afternoon a Bible study on the holy spirit is being given. Tonight at 7:30 the closing meeting of the week is held. Mr. Ayers will preach.

GENERAL OPINIONS

ON THE JUDGESHIP

Brookhead Register Sizes Up the Situation to Suit Itself—Grimm or Dunwiddie.

While but little is being done in the way of campaigning in and about Janesville relative to the coming election of judge for the circuit court in other cities in the district much interest is being exhibited. The Brookhead Register's view of the situation is expressed in the following article:

"We had the pleasure of a call last week from Hon. Judge Grimm, county judge of Jefferson and one of the candidates for circuit judge at the coming spring election. This was the judge's first visit to the interest in his candidacy, and he is no novice at judging, having extended the glad hand to many of our citizens during the day. He is a pleasant gentleman to meet personally, and doubtless made many friends here. Regarding the success of his candidacy he expressed himself as confident of his election. Certain it is that aside from Judge Dunwiddie's candidacy he seems the most likely to win. The voters of Green county will largely cast their votes either for Judge Dunwiddie or for Judge Grimm. This conclusion is not based upon any disloyalty to our own candidate, Judge Becker, whom the citizens believe owes the county his services as county judge, he having just entered upon a new term after a most successful election in the face of strong opposition. Personally we admire Judge Becker and believe that he can be of more service to the county in filling his present position than to allow himself to become a candidate for the circuit judgeship. We will express our candid opinion that the fight lies between only two candidates—the present incumbent, and Judge Grimm, with the chances of success in favor of the former. In Judge Grimm, the present incumbent, is a formidable opponent, and the contest for the suffrages will necessarily be spirited. Judge Dunwiddie has the advantage of satisfactory service and also the advantage that he will receive the greater part of the suffrages of Rock county voters. Green county voters will hold the balance of suffrages in deciding the contest and we may expect that the several candidates will make every effort to win the good graces of the citizens of the county. It has been rumored that Judge Becker will drop out of the race, though we do not look for any such move on his part for the present at least."

Without any explanation and by only an unofficial announcement the Beloit high school basketball management canceled the game which was to have been played by them with the Janesville high school five in the Line City this evening. The local management immediately communicated with several other teams and this morning secured a contest with Beloit Academy. The game will be played tomorrow evening at 7:45 o'clock in the high school gymnasium here. The locals have defeated the Academy boys on their home floor and are still in good form, but the Line City lads have had two weeks to improve in and the outcome can hardly be predicted. As a preliminary a game will be played by the first girls' team of the high school and the alumni girls' five.

Without any explanation and by only an unofficial announcement the Beloit high school basketball management canceled the game which was to have been played by them with the Janesville high school five in the Line City this evening. The local management immediately communicated with several other teams and this morning secured a contest with Beloit Academy. The game will be played tomorrow evening at 7:45 o'clock in the high school gymnasium here. The locals have defeated the Academy boys on their home floor and are still in good form, but the Line City lads have had two weeks to improve in and the outcome can hardly be predicted. As a preliminary a game will be played by the first girls' team of the high school and the alumni girls' five.

BERNHARDT GIVEN A MEDAL AT HARVARD

The Divine Sarah is Honored as No Other Woman and Only Eight Men Have Been.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Boston, Mass., Jan. 26.—Seventy-five students of Harvard university, members of the Cercle Francais de l'Universite Harvard, will attend the performance of "Phedre" at the Boston theatre this evening. After the performance they will present Mme. Sarah Bernhardt with a gold medal, an honor which has heretofore only been bestowed upon men of eminence. No woman in the world possesses one and the distinctive honor for Mme. Bernhardt is in recognition of her great services to French art and history.

Originally it was intended to have Mme. Bernhardt as a guest of honor at a matinee performance of Moliere's "L'Amour Medecin" at Jordan Hall on January 18, but the plan was abandoned as there is a rule in Harvard that no matinee entertainments shall be given during the school year. Similar medals have been conferred only upon eight persons, Rene Doumic, Edouard Rod, Henri de Regnier, Gaston Deschamps, Constance Coquelet, Henri Leroux, F. Brunetiere, of the French academy and Rene Millet.

Actors' Home Benefit

New York, Jan. 26.—An unusually large and interesting bill has been prepared by Daniel Frohman, president of the fund for the Actors' home benefit, which will take place this afternoon at the Broadway theatre. The attractions include Blanch Bates, Frank Keenan, and J. Henry Benmore of Belasco's company in a one-act play entitled "My Aunt's Advice"; William Faversham, Julie Opp, and W. S. Hart, in a one-act play by Mrs. Craigie, entitled "Journey's End, in Lovers Meeting"; Ethel Barrymore, John Barrymore, and Joseph Kligmore in a play by Richard Harding Davis entitled "Miss Civilization"; Margaret Illington and Ernest Lawford in Suro's one-act sketch "A Maker of Men"; Miss Adele Ritchie and Brandon Hurst in a comedy sketch, "Kate Vermilye, Fay Templeton, Marie Dressler, Elsie Janis, Beatrice Harford, Henri de Vries, Frank Lincoln and others in sketches and scenes. The house is practically sold out.

Scientific Result of Carelessness.

According to a communication in the British Weekly, scientific is often induced in clerks by the fact that they are accustomed to sit in the familiar position assumed by those who use high office stools.

Satan's Personal Appearance.

In an orchestral work by Charles de Bartholome, designed to illustrate the story of Milton's "Paradise Lost," the composer undertakes to portray by means of musical tones, "the personal appearance of Satan."

Truly wonderfully—a little want ad.

STATE NOTES

Dr. J. E. Luce of Chilton slipped and fell on an icy sidewalk and broke one of his thigh bones just below the hip.

After having been in business for twenty years, the James A. Trane Plumbing company of La Crosse was forced to make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

Arthur Sackett, son of Dr. H. T. Sackett, a dentist of Fond du Lac, has been taken to Chicago by a detective to answer to a serious charge preferred by the proprietors of a boarding house, where young Sackett has been boarding.

Preparations are being made to rebuild the portion of the Northwestern Manufacturing plant at Fort Atkinson which was burned recently. Some branches of the business were uninjured and are running as though nothing had gone wrong.

It is said that a new economy wave has struck the state university and that much of the work that was being done in odd jobs has been dropped altogether since the appointment of the legislative committee to investigate that institution.

Robert B. Pottinger of the Salvation Army will prefer charges against Chief of Police Pfister of Racine. The gentleman alleges that the chief insulted two members of the army and his wife, making the statement that they were not ladies because they entered saloons and attempted to sell papers to the occupants.

More than 300 people attended the annual charity ball under the auspices of the Kenosha lodge of Elks Thursday evening. The receipts from the party were more than $800, and they will be equally divided between the charity fund of the lodge and the general fund of the Kenosha hospital.

Judgement against a dead man was awarded in the court of Justice Sturges in Kenosha, when the court handed down a decision granting a judgment by default in the suit of Maria Dahl vs. Henry Wiesmann of Brighton. Miss Dahl had brought an action for replevin against Wiesmann. The articles in controversy were valued at about $100.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES

Michael Burke, the alleged Indiana bank robber, has been brought to Indiana from Toledo.

The business district of Mendon, Mercer county, O., was destroyed by fire. Loss, $50,000.

The first annual exhibition of the Ford County Poultry association is being held in Paxton, Ill.

The Philippine commission has decided to sell $1,000,000 of 4 per cent bonds under the act of Feb. 6, 1905, proposals to be received up to Feb. 15 next.

The case against Charles K. Lehnberg of St. Louis, arrested in Cincinnati last November on a charge of forgery in the third degree, was nolle prossed in St. Louis.

The strike of oil field workmen employed by the Texas and Moonshine companies at Humble has spread to Sour Lake, Saratoga, Batson and Spindletop. Operations of two companies are suspended.

SMARTEST FOOLS ON EARTH

Commodore Benedict's Opinion of the American People.

Commodore E. C. Benedict was the guest of honor at a dinner at the Hotel Elton, in Waterbury, Conn., the other night, says a special dispatch from Stamford, Conn., to the New York Times. After the dinner he expressed his views on some public matters in his characteristic manner.

"How much longer shall we be content to be the smartest race of damned fools that ever existed?" he asked, adding:

"If this country was administered on business principles, without regard to politics, we would soon own or control everything in the world that is worth owning or controlling, and that without firing anything but a commercial shot. The country suffers vastly more from the acts of its lawbreakers than from the acts of its lawbreakers in impeding commerce, in discriminating in taxation and in uncivilized methods of finance.

"The stock speculators of Wall Street have been accused by financial editors of being the cause of high money rates. The statement is absurd. Wall street is the heart of this country's financial system. Back of it are the veins and arteries which quicken or retard its pulsations. The fault is with our currency system. Wall street is no more chargeable for the high rates of interest than are the hands of a clock responsible for the marking of time."

RELIC HUNTERS AROUSED.

Rockefeller Expedition in Sudan Excites Rivalry by British.

The authorities at the British museum in London will soon make a special effort to interest the government in the purchase by the public of valuable Egyptian relics, says a special cable dispatch from London to the Chicago News. This action, it appears, is due to the information that John D. Rockefeller has commissioned a well known American Egyptologist to survey the whole of the Sudan and has placed practically unlimited finances at his disposal to pick up anything he can that is worth buying.

The most famous Egyptologist in England, in the course of a recent interview, said, he sincerely trusted the government would take some decided steps to deal with the habit of American millionaires of presenting their native tows with Egyptian antiquities, for with their wealth the Americans seemed able at present to snap up everything that is precious in connection with Egypt's past.

Wise Words by Pope.

A man should never be ashamed to own that he has been in the wrong; which is but saying, in other words, that he is wiser to-day than he was yesterday.—Pope.

SUNDAY EGGS FOR CHURCH.

Money Received For Those Laid on Sunday Goes to Debt Fund.

The Forest City (Pa.) Methodist Episcopal church is raising money to pay debts, and one novel method was adopted, says a special dispatch from Forest City, Pa., to the Philadelphia Press.

A year ago Jesse Bonkus, a poultry raiser of Unadilla, agreed to give as his share of the debt subscription all eggs laid by his hens on alternate Sundays throughout the year. He recently reported to the Epworth League the amount of money raised, for he turned the eggs into cash. Six hundred and twenty-seven were laid, and their market value was $11.11.

Instead of the money the congregation will take its value in chicken and will give a chicken supper.

Miss Alice Roosevelt's Fine Fur.

Miss Alice Roosevelt, the president's daughter, will have in her trousseau a set of very valuable silver fox, the skins of which were presented to her in Hongkong by the British governor general, says a Washington special dispatch to the New York Times. They are now being made up by a Washington furrier, who has been ordered to deliver them on Feb. 15 at the White House. The collar will be in the wide stole effect, reaching far down the back and running to a point close to the hem of the skirt in front. The muff will be in the prevailing large flat shape, and there will be a toque of the same, with a white feather. The collar and muff will be lined with pale gray brocaded satin.

Telephones in Mad Dog Roundups.

Telephones are being used almost daily in the farming districts to give warning of dogs which are afflicted with rabies, says a Winsted (Conn.) dispatch to the New York Tribune. Whenever a dog thus afflicted is seen in the country the farmer making the discovery telephones ahead to his neighbor, who shoots the canine before it can attack his stock.

Mule Pawned For Marriage License.

James Richardson of Rodgers Mills county, Okla., recently tendered a mule as a chattel to a Cheyenne money lender in order to get funds with which to get a marriage license and pay the preacher, says the Guthrie Gazette. He had ridden the mule in eighteen miles—and expected to walk back in time for the wedding.

Letter Box Novelty.

Letter boxes with electric bells are being erected in Paris in consequence of frequent thefts of letters. When the flap which covers the slit in the box is moved the bell rings.

Canea With Lights.

Illuminated walking sticks are among the latest applications of electricity. A small incandescent lamp is concealed in the head of the cane and can be ignited by a spring.
